

Shri Chintaman R Vyas

Born in 1924 in the village of Thair, Maharashtra, Shri Chintaman R Vyas received his training in Hindustani vocal music from Govindrao Bhatambrekar, Rajarambua Paradkar, Yashwantbua Mirashi and Jagannathbua Purohit — assimilating the best in the Kirana, Gwalior and Agra gharānas.

Shri C R Vyas has emerged as a vocalist of rare distinction, performing widely over a long career at home and abroad. He has to his credit several gramophone records and nearly two hundred original compositions under the pseudonym Gunijan. His disciples include several well-known young artistes of today.

AKADEMI AWARD : HINDUSTANI VOCAL MUSIC

For his eminence in music and his contribution to its enrichment Shri Chintaman R Vyas receives the Sangeet Natak Akademi Award for Hindustani vocal music.

Akademi
Awards
1987

