

BYLAHALLY SEETHARAM PURUSHOTHAM

CARNATIC INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC (KANJEERA)

Born on 17 September 1974, B.S. Purusho-tham received his initial training in music from M.L. Veerabhadraiah and V. Praveen, and later from T.K. Murthy. He is a recipient of national fellowship from the Ministry of Culture and is a regular broadcaster with All India Radio. He has been featured several times in Akashvani Sangeet Sammelans and national programmes on radio.

Purushotham has performed widely at prestigious concerts in India and abroad including the Adelaide World Music Festival, Sydney Opera House, Hanover World Expo at Germany, Min-on Festival at Japan, World Drummer's Meet at Stockholm, Sweden.

He has been accompanying several eminent musicians like Dr. M. Balamurali Krishna, Palghat K.V. Narayanswamy, R.K. Shrikantan, T.K. Govinda Rao, M.S. Gopalakrishnan, Dr. T.K. Murthy, Mani Krishnaswamy, and V.V. Subramaniam.

B.S. Purushotham has received many awards, including the Kalki Krishnamurthy Memorial Award, Yuva Kala Bharathi, Gopalachar Memorial Award, and the Anangya Yuva Puraskar. He has many recordings to his credit.